

Asian Plants and Trees - Marco Polo Plants

Marcopolo Plants

Sophora japonica Pendula

Sophora japonica Pendula

Common name: Pendulous Pagoda tree.

Height: 3-5M

Soil: well drained soil. Half shade to full sun.

Flowering: Clusters of pea-like creamy-white flowers.

Hardiness: hardiness rating 1.

Sophora japonica Pendula is a deciduous tree. The Pagoda tree has dark green leaves consisting of a number of leaflets. With age, the Pagoda tree can bear clusters of pea-like creamy-white flowers.

Native to China.

Interested in Sophoras from Chile? Sophora microphylla and Sophora macrocarpa are available at Patagonia Plants.

Vendor Information